*Most CPA firms charge you an administrative fee of usually $50 to $75 to prepare your extension form. You'll be charged time at over $100 per hour if a CPA prepares the extension him or herself. Be cautious! This fee is usually hidden in the total fees for tax return services invoiced to you upon completion of your tax return later in the year.

Give us a call, we'll tell you how "we know what we know", and why we're sure you're paying too much!
